Success, Achievement and Fulfillment - Capturing Your Best Year Ever!

Join Sean Hughes, General Manager of RW Anderson Services, for a fun, informative and interactive seminar on how to get the most out of 2019! This is your chance to gather some tips and tricks to make you and the team you work with more efficient and successful in the new year. Who wants to live with so much stress and all those nagging “to-do’s”? In this session, we will discuss concepts to help gain equilibrium with your work responsibilities and maintain sanity in your life! We will explore “business hacks” to get more productivity out of your day. We will dive into “The Art of Achievement” and “The Art of Fulfillment”. Two concepts Sean and his team have been acutely focused on for the past 12 months. These are core concepts that have struck the heart of their team from the Tony Robbins Institute. Wait...what? Tony Robbins? Will you be walking on blazing hot coals at the end of the seminar? Well...show up and you’ll find out!
